

English Day 9:

Today we are recapping...

How to plan and write a character description.

‘Peace at Last’

Can you write some words in your English Home Learning book to describe Mr Bear?

Remember to write words to describe his appearance (what he looks like and is wearing) and also his personality and what type of person he is.

Can you write some words in your English Home Learning book to describe Mrs Bear?

Remember to write words to describe her appearance (what she looks like and is wearing) and also her personality and what type of person she is.

Can you write some words in your English Home Learning book to describe Baby Bear?

Remember to write words to describe his appearance (what he looks like and is wearing) and also his personality and what type of person he is.

Now can you put some of your describing words into sentences about the characters in the story.

You can write your sentences in your English Home Learning book.

You can write a character description for each of the three bears or you can just write about your one favourite character from the story.
