

English:
Today we are recapping...

Writing a character description.

Do you remember the story we read yesterday?

Can you tell an adult what happened in the story you read yesterday?

We are going to be writing a character description about the wolf in the story.

What does the wolf look like?

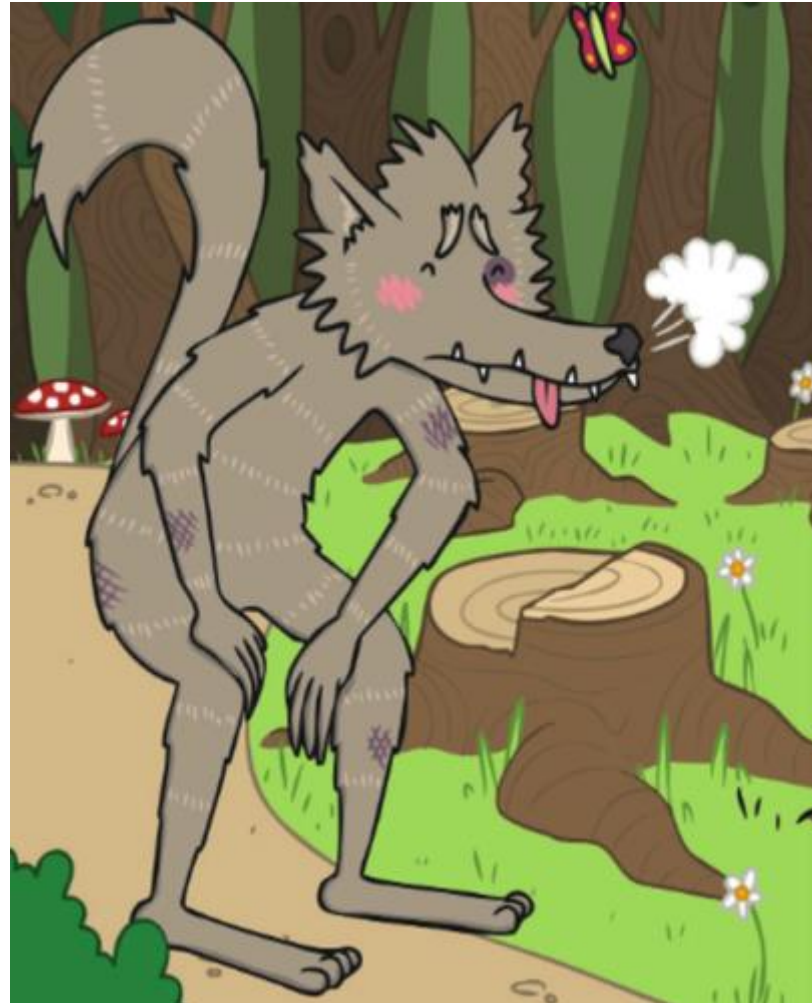

What type of character is he?

Can you describe his fur?

What are his teeth like?

Write a list of expanded noun phrases to describe the wolf.

Sharp, pointy teeth.

Thick, grey fur.

Now have a go at writing a character description.

- Here is a short example:

The evil wolf has thick, grey fur covering his body. His mouth is filled with sharp, pointy teeth that he uses to scare everyone he meets. He is a sly wolf because he disguises himself as Grandma.
